

The Journal of Experimental Biology

Stewart, Nicholls and Adams on ionic currents in leech neurones	1
Metcalfe and Butler on circulating catecholamines in dogfish	21
Reynolds and Bellward on water balance in caterpillars	33
Weyrauther, Roebroek and Stavenga on dye transport in a fly eye	47
Chiappinelli, Hue, Mony and Sattelle on the actions of $\alpha$ -bungarotoxin	61
Ashford, Boden, Ramsey and Usherwood on ketamine and glutamate receptors	73
Delp, Laughlin and Armstrong on muscle hyperaemia and temperature	87
Wells, Grigg, Beard and Summers on oxygen transport in an antarctic fish	97
Doolan and Young on cicada song	113
Speckner, Schindler and Albers on carp erythrocytes	133
Ramirez and Pearson on respiratory interneurons in locusts	151
Hanssen, Lafeber, Flik and Wendelaar Bonga on hypocalcin in eels	177
Hanlon, Bidwell and Tait on cephalopod statolith formation	187
Sandeman on crayfish antennae	197
Hadley, Toolson and Quinlan on cicada cuticle permeability	219
Reichert and Rowell on a locust neuronal oscillator	231
Able on bird orientation	241
Paul on central input to primary sensory neurones	257
Stephenson, Turner and Butler on oxygen stores in diving ducks	265
Berlind on feedback in the lobster cardiac ganglion	277
Chamberlin on metabolic stimulation of Manduca midgut	295
Lythgoe and Shand on reflectance changes in iridophores	313
De Haan, Van Ingen Schenau, Ettema, Huijting and Lodder on efficiency of rat muscle	327
Reilly and Lauder on motor pattern conservation in salamanders	343
Wainwright on pharyngeal jaw modulation in fishes	359
Butler, Axelsson, Ehrenström, Metcalfe and Nilsson on catecholamines and swimming in cod	377
Levy, Achatuv and Susswein on respiration in Aplysia	389
Tang, McDonald and Boutilier on acid-base regulation in trout	407
Nilsson on the effect of anoxia on carp brain	419
Isaacson and Nicolson on measurement of transtubular potentials	429
Donald on control of gill calcium uptake	441
Walker and Bitterman on honeybee magnetic field discrimination	447
Garcia-Scheible and Honegger on insect neurosecretory cells	453
Büschges, Koch and Breutel on visualization of neurones	461
